

SHOWS & APRÈS SKI ENVIRONMENT

Original in every way, Le Massif offers an environment where visitors from the four corners of the planet converge, seeking pleasure and discovery. After hours of slide sports fun out on its natural stage, at day's end the mountain's Summit Pub transforms itself into a peak entertainment venue, where over fifteen free shows are presented over a three-month period, reflecting the joie de vivre and energy of its sports crowd... to perfection.

Le Massif boasts a solid reputation for quality après ski shows, as renowned and up-and-coming songwriters, composers and vocalists perform onstage. The most rewarding tributes are those experienced on the human scale, when artists and fans fall into synergy, surging off each other's contagious vibes.

Shows That Are Absolutely... Free!

Not exactly your average concert venue, Le Massif has developed its very own Show-z-après-ski concept presenting a line-up of free shows that spotlight the talent of artists with surprisingly diverse musical styles. Blues, jazz, folk, rock, disco, funk, ska and reggae succeed one another all season long in a contemporary, friendly atmosphere charged with creative energy.

Le Massif's stage has welcomed Marco Calliari, Yann Perreau, Pat The White, Steve Hill, Ricky Paquette, Andrée Dupré, Martin Deschamps, The Boogie Wonder Band, The Funkafones, Polémil Bazar and Kaliroots et Mes Aïeux - to name but a few. Also part of this prestigious list are Sébastien Plante, Lulu Hughes, Gabrielle Destroismaisons, Marie Mai, Annie Dufresne and Hugo Lapointe who, accompanied by The Porn Flakes, had the skier rider crowd reaching all new heights of entertainment.

Bongos, Congas, Djembes... And Snowy Slopes!

In April of this year, the mountain comes alive for its now traditional day-long Reggae Bash, when the spectre of Bob Marley marks his joyous beat. This music fest invites skiers and riders to add their touch to this decade-old springtime celebration, by joining in with their own percussion instruments and finding inspiration in the tempos of the event's guest bands. Over 12 straight hours of reggae sets everyone swaying from base to summit, indoors and outdoors – even on the lifts! So let's dance, sing and celebrate!
