

GENERAL CONDITIONS

MOUNTAIN BIKE SEASON PASS

TERMS OF USE AND REFUND 2022

1. All passes issued by the ski area remain the property of Le Massif.
2. Pass holders must carry their pass on their person at all times, and present it to any representative when so requested.
3. Passes cannot be loaned, sold or reproduced. Infractions will result in the immediate confiscation of the pass and could lead to legal prosecution.
4. If lost, stolen or forgotten, please notify customer service immediately. Your season pass will be replaced. A $25 fee will be applied to replace your membership card.
5. The pass holder pledges to respect the mountain code of conduct in its entirety. This code has been adopted in virtue of the bi-law on safety in sports, and it applies to anyone practising a slide sport:
 - Remain in control of your speed and direction. Make sure you can stop or avoid any person or obstacle;
 - Yield the right of way to persons downhill, and choose a course that ensures their safety;
 - Stop on-trail only if you can be seen from above, and only where you are not obstructing the trail;
 - Yield the right of way to persons uphill when entering a trail, and at intersections;
 - If you are involved in or witness an accident, remain at the scene and identify yourself to a first-aider;
 - Use and wear proper devices at all times to prevent runaway equipment;
 - Stay off the lifts and trails if under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
 - Respect all signage and warnings, and never venture off-trail or onto closed trails;
 - Obey all regulations and signage posted for special activities taking place within ski area boundaries, as marked out. Be safety conscious. Know the code. It's your responsibility!
6. Helmets are mandatory.
7. Le Massif reserves the right to cancel, confiscate or suspend a season pass for infractions to the mountain code of conduct, or for fraudulent use. A season pass is issued only when the pass holder has agreed to abide by the above codes and regulations in effect. In cases where the pass holder is at fault, sanctions will apply without notice or refund.
8. Season passes are non-refundable and non-transferable. They are valid the season for which they are purchased, and may not be transferred to the next season. In some cases they may be cancelled according to the season pass cancellation policy currently in effect.
9. Season passes entitle legitimate pass holders to use all Le Massif installations, depending on the type of pass. The purchaser of a season pass or the pass holder, whether ownership is legitimate or not, agrees to assume all risks and consequences arising from the acquisition, possession or use of the season pass.

Pass holders agree there are inherent risks and dangers to practicing a Slide sport, of which they are aware. Pass holders accept all risks of Personal injury and assume full responsibility for material damages resulting from the said risks and dangers. Among others, the following are included among the risks and dangers inherent to practicing a slide sport:

- Opening date and length of mountain bike season;
- Changing climatic conditions;
- Changes in steepness of the slope;
- Presence of natural obstacles/features and on-mountain conditions. All natural on-mountain conditions including ditches, crevices and streams, rocks, earth, trees, tree regrowth, natural bushes and stumps, and any other natural obstacle;
- Changes to surface conditions;
- Collisions with other persons;
- Presence of towers, pylons, posts, poles and any other structure used by ski area operations, including collisions with any of these elements;
- Use of chairlifts;
- Presence on-trail of mobile grooming equipment, emergency vehicles and snowmaking equipment.

10. Pass holders agree to pay a minimum fee of $250 for personal rescues conducted in off-trail sectors or on closed trails.

11. For family passes, the head of household agrees to:

- Inform every family member of the terms of use regarding season passes;
- Only pass holders 18 years+ may commit to this contract. Anyone under the age of 18 requires the signature of a parent or legal guardian.

By becoming pass holder at Le Massif ski area, the member agrees and shall comply with all of the above terms of use. I declare that I have read, understood and agreed to this contract at time of purchase.

MOUNTAIN BIKING

The terms and the conditions hereafter include clauses pertaining to the acceptance and recognition of risk as well as an exclusion of liability clause. Please read this carefully before signing.

Definition

In this form, mountain biking includes the practice of mountain biking in the access trails, uphill and downhill trails that are designated as such, are open, marked but not patrolled as well as the use of the ski lifts designated as such by the station and related activities organized by the Massif de Charlevoix Resort, LP.

Risk recognition and acceptance

I understand that mountain biking involves a number of risks, dangers and obstacles. The land used for mountain biking poses numerous risks, dangers and obstacles that are unmarked, visible or not. These may include cliffs; trees; tree stumps; fallen dead trees; streams; rocks; landslides; boulders; holes/depressions; bridges and other structures built on the trails; changing and difficult land conditions; presence of wild animals; impact and collision with other people; risk of getting lost or straying off course as well as negligence of others. Communication in the alpine terrain may be difficult and in the event of an accident or illness, rescue, first aid treatment and evacuation may not be available and/or may be delayed. Weather conditions can be extreme and can change rapidly and without notice.

I hereby agree to read and abide by the ethical rules and code of conduct of the mountain that are displayed at the ticket office and near the ski lifts. I also agree to obey the existing signage and all other rules of conduct and sanctions that are imposed by the Massif de Charlevoix Resort, LP. I also acknowledge the fact that the Massif de Charlevoix Resort, LP requires that I wear an approved safety helmet while mountain biking.

I certify that I am 18 years and older or that I have obtained the signature of one of my parents/guardians in the blank space provided in the present document.

Safety advisory

Only go on the open and designated areas. Please respect the signage, the fauna and the environment. At all times, please respect the ethical rules and the code of conduct of the mountain that are displayed at the ticket office, near the ski lifts and on our website;
